

Longmont Senior Services Scholarship Program Information

The Friends of the Longmont Senior Center, Inc. have set aside funds specifically to assist lower income older persons in participating in various activities organized by Senior Services. There are 2 types of scholarships.

Please read the following information.

1. General Scholarship:

- Activities eligible for the General Scholarship include activities organized by Longmont Senior Services. There are some activities that are not eligible, such as extended travel, AARP classes, etc. You may ask at the front desk if you are unsure.
- The maximum amount per person is $150.00 per calendar year.

2. Exercise Scholarship:

- Activities eligible for the Exercise Scholarship include fitness activities organized by Longmont Senior Services: Aerobic Fitness, Feldenkrais®, Line Dance, Pilates, Senior Conditioning, Strength Training, Wu Tai Chi, Tai Chi, and Yoga are some examples.
- The maximum amount per person is $150.00 per calendar year.

General Information about both scholarships

Eligibility:

- Lower income: Single persons with an annual income of $20,000 or less. Couples with an annual income $30,000 or less. The annual income is from all sources. In addition to meeting the annual income guidelines, this is someone who has very limited assets and limited disposable income.
- 55 years of age or better.
- You must apply each year for a new scholarship.

Miscellaneous:

- The scholarship begins January 2, 2015, and may be used throughout the year as funds are available. Any amount left over does not roll over to the next year.
- Scholarships are granted and may be used on a funds available basis.
- Scholarships are not transferable to others persons.
- You may apply for both scholarships.
- If you cancel an activity that has been paid for with a scholarship, that money is forfeited. It is not available to you to apply towards another activity.
